Summary

This beautifully presented end-terrace home is perfect for first-time buyers or those looking to downsize. With iconic moorland walks, country pubs and just a 7 minute walk to the train station. This hidden gem offers convenience, a bright garden area and a wood-burning stove. A rare find.

The home welcomes you with an entrance porch, ideal for storing coats and shoes, leading into a bright and airy family lounge. This inviting space features a striking inglenook wood-burning stove, fitted cupboards, and stylish laminate flooring, creating a warm and cosy atmosphere. The modern fitted kitchen boasts an excellent range of contemporary wall and base units, complemented by sleek work surfaces, a porcelain sink with a single drainer, an integral electric cooker with a gas hob, and an integrated fridge freezer. There is also a designated space for a washing machine, making it both stylish and practical.

Upstairs, the first floor offers a fantastic master bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a feature cast iron fireplace, and plenty of natural light. There is also a versatile second room, ideal for a nursery, office, or guest room. The house bathroom is tastefully designed, featuring a rounded top bath, wash hand basin, low-level WC, part-tiled walls, and a heated towel rail. The property also benefits from access to a partially boarded loft with a pull-down ladder, providing valuable additional storage space.

Externally, the home boasts an enclosed front garden leading to an artificial lawn, raised flower beds, and a side garden that extends to the beck. A garden shed offers additional outdoor storage, and the setting provides a delightful space to relax and enjoy the summer months. Right of access for neighboring property.

Guiseley itself is a highly desirable area with a fantastic range of shops, restaurants, and pubs, as well as excellent schools and transport links. The train station offers easy access to Leeds and Ilkley.
