Summary

This attractive mid-terraced home offers bright, welcoming accommodation and is ideally positioned within easy reach of Yeadon High Street, where a good range of local amenities and transport links can be found. The property is offered with no onward chain, making it an appealing option for first-time buyers, downsizers or investors. On entering, a small entrance area provides a practical spot for coats and shoes, helping to keep the main living space uncluttered. The sitting room enjoys a pleasant outlook to the front and has a comfortable, relaxed feel. To the rear, the dining kitchen provides generous space for everyday cooking and mealtimes, with access to the garden through a newly fitted stable door that brings in plenty of natural light.

Upstairs, there are two well-proportioned double bedrooms, both offering ample room for furnishings, along with a modern shower room fitted with a clean, white suite. The layout is simple, functional and ideal for a range of lifestyles. Outside, the property benefits from a lawned garden at the front, while the rear garden enjoys a sunny, south-facing aspect. This enclosed space features a patio area that lends itself well to outdoor dining, relaxation or entertaining during the warmer months.

The location combines convenience with the attraction of nearby countryside, with numerous scenic walks and outdoor pursuits close at hand. Yeadon town centre provides a varied selection of shops, cafés, restaurants and bars, and families will appreciate the choice of schools within the area. Commuters are well served, with regular bus and train services to Leeds, Bradford and surrounding districts, especially from nearby Guiseley station. Leeds Bradford Airport is also within easy reach for those who travel frequently
