Summary

This beautifully presented stone end-terrace home offers generous three bedroom accommodation in the much-loved Little London area of Rawdon. Carefully modernised, it combines the charm of a period property with a stylish contemporary finish. The heart of the home is its superb first-floor open plan living space, where the dining area, lounge and kitchen flow together to create a warm and welcoming setting. Large windows draw in natural light and highlight the quality of the décor, while the feature fireplace and solid oak flooring add character. The modern kitchen includes smart fitted cabinetry, wooden work surfaces and integrated appliances, with a breakfast bar providing an inviting spot for relaxed meals.

The master bedroom sits on the first floor alongside a well appointed bathroom with a traditional suite and useful storage. Two further bedrooms are found on the second floor, offering flexibility for family life, home working or visiting guests. A double cellar provides valuable storage and houses the central heating boiler.

Outside, the private enclosed courtyard offers a peaceful space for relaxing or entertaining, making the most of the property's sunny aspect.

Upper Lombard Street enjoys a sought-after position within Little London, an area known for its charming character homes and friendly atmosphere. The location is ideal for commuters, with convenient access to major routes, Apperley Bridge railway station and Leeds Bradford Airport. Everyday amenities are close at hand, including shops, cafés, restaurants, gyms and well regarded schools, while woodland walks and green spaces are just moments away.

This delightful home will appeal to first-time buyers and families seeking a blend of period style, modern comfort and an enviable Rawdon setting.
