Summary

Located in the popular town of Yeadon, within close proximity to local shops and amenities, 'The Old Post Office' oozes warmth, charm and character and has been carefully restored and upgraded over recent years. Sure to appeal to a variety of tenants this is certainly a property you will fall in love with and must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Much of the original character has been kept, with traditional cornices and balustrades left in-situ.

Accommodation briefly consists of an entrance hallway, a superb open plan kitchen diner, a large lounge with attractive fireplace and log burning stove. To the first floor can be found the three double bedrooms, with Ensuite to master and the large house bathroom. Externally there are low maintenance gardens which at the time of coming to the market were bathed in sunshine. Parking for 3 to 4 cars can also be found to the side and rear. There are also extensive cellars covering the footprint of the entire property.
