DESCRIPTION

At the bottom of a quiet cul-de-sac, this well-presented ground floor maisonette offers comfortable living in a convenient Hayes location.

The property features a spacious reception room, providing ample space, alongside a separate modern kitchen fitted with contemporary units and practical worktop space. The generous double bedroom benefits from a built-in wardrobe as well as additional storage, creating a practical and clutter-free environment, while the hallway also provides extra storage cupboards. A well-maintained family bathroom completes the accommodation. The home is offered in great condition throughout and is ready to move into.

Externally, the property enjoys both front and rear gardens, offering private outdoor space ideal for relaxing or entertaining. There is also communal parking available for residents.

Juniper Way is within easy reach of Hayes Town Centre and everyday amenities, with excellent transport links via Hayes & Harlington Station (Elizabeth Line), providing direct access to Central London, Heathrow Airport and Reading. The A312, A40 and M4 are also easily accessible, making it ideal for commuters.
