Summary

Beautifully extended and luxuriously appointed, this exceptional traditional detached family home is very conveniently located for great local schools, Sutton Park and Wylde Green railway station. In fantastic 'turn-key' condition, the property simply must be viewed, briefly comprising;

Impressive reception hall, guests cloaks and boot room, living room with media wall and ceiling speakers, dining area with large understairs cupboard, magnificently extended and expensively fitted kitchen/family room enjoying high specification integrated appliances, quartz work surfaces, twin Neff ovens, additional oven and microwave, fridge/freezer and dishwasher, family area having bifold doors to patio, separate utility room with matching units.

The first floor is approached by a superb staircase with glazed balustrade and feature arched window to landing offering storage cupboard and hatch to loft. Four generous double bedrooms, stunning principle suite having dressing room and shower room ensuite with a luxury family bathroom completing the accommodation.

Outside, garage store with electric up and over door, block paved drive with security bollard provides ample off road parking and a landscaped rear garden with patio, lawn, screening shrubs, power, hose tap and twin gated side accesses.
