Lower Laurel Cottage

Falkins Hill, Brampton, CA8 1BU

Guide Price £199,950

NO CHAIN – Located just moments from Brampton town centre within the charming setting of Falkins Hill, this characterful two-bedroom semi-detached cottage offers beautifully presented, move-in-ready accommodation and will appeal to a wide range of purchasers. Full of warmth and cottage charm, the property has been renovated to an excellent standard and blends modern comfort with period character, with a spacious living room and generous dining kitchen providing ample space for everyday living and entertaining. To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms and a stylish modern four-piece bathroom, with both bedrooms enjoying pleasant outlooks to the front and rear. Externally, the property benefits from a delightful sandstone-walled garden to the rear, creating a private space for alfresco dining and outdoor enjoyment, together with a small garden to the front. Currently operated as a successful holiday let, the property will also prove highly appealing as a main residence or second home, particularly given its convenient position for Brampton’s amenities and excellent access to Hadrian’s Wall, the Lake District, Northumberland National Park and the surrounding countryside. The property is also available to purchase fully furnished, subject to separate negotiation. A charming home in a highly convenient yet picturesque setting, viewing is essential to fully appreciate all that it has to offer.
