DESCRIPTION

Rich in history and timeless charm, Peak House is a Georgian four-bedroom country home dating back to the late 1700s. Combining period elegance with modern comforts, it offers generous living space throughout. Set within beautifully landscaped gardens, the property benefits from ample off-road parking, a garage, and a characterful outbuilding. From the moment it comes into view, Peak House captivates with its striking carriage arches, original features, and thoughtful contemporary additions – including a stunning sunroom – creating a home of exceptional appeal. With four versatile reception rooms and four spacious bedrooms, this residence provides an ideal setting for family life to thrive.

For those drawn to character and history, Peak House has a fascinating past, having served as a Private Residence and Public House in the 1800s, a Post Office and Bakery in the 1900s, before its careful transformation into the attractive home it is today. A striking feature of the rear garden, the historic plague stone serves as a poignant reminder of the home's rich heritage.

A rare opportunity to acquire a residence of such interest, Peak House is truly a place to call home, contact Hunters today to arrange your viewing and experience its timeless elegance firsthand.

The accommodation, which has oil central heating and double glazing throughout, briefly comprises an entrance vestibule, hallway, living room, dining room, sitting room, kitchen, sunroom and WC/cloakroom to the ground floor with a landing, four bedrooms, bathroom and wet room to the first floor. Externally there is off-road parking, attached garage, outbuilding, log store, hog house and gardens to the front and rear. EPC - F and Council Tax Band - D.
