Ale Cottage

Ireby, Wigton, CA7 1EA

Guide Price £229,950

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this characterful two-bedroom cottage presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a second home, holiday investment, or main residence close to the Lake District. Currently operated as a successful holiday let, the property is well presented throughout and offers reverse-living accommodation, with the living room, well-appointed dining kitchen, one double bedroom, and family bathroom situated on the first floor to maximise the fabulous, far-reaching views towards the fells, while the master bedroom suite is located on the ground floor. Truly enhancing the feel, the quirky living room features a multi-fuel stove, vaulted ceiling, and patio doors which allow direct access to the side garden. The cottage showcases exposed beams, timber doors, and attractive period details throughout. Outside, an elevated side garden provides a pleasant outdoor space enjoying the same picturesque outlook, while a dedicated parking space and an integral garage with utility area offer valuable flexibility for additional parking, storage, or potential future development. This is a property that must be viewed to be fully appreciated, contact Hunters today to arrange your viewing.

Ireby is a charming and peaceful village set on the northern edge of the Lake District National Park, offering an idyllic blend of rural tranquillity and strong community spirit. Surrounded by open countryside, rolling fells and scenic walking routes, the village provides an ideal base for lovers of the outdoors, with Bassenthwaite Lake and the Caldbeck Fells only a short distance away. Despite its quiet setting, Ireby benefits from a well-regarded local pub, a popular village hall hosting regular events and the renowned Ireby Music Festival. The nearby town of Wigton, approximately six miles away, provides a wider range of amenities including shops, schools, leisure facilities and transport links, while Keswick and Carlisle are both easily reachable for commuting. The A595 runs within close proximity to the village, offering excellent road connections toward Carlisle, Cockermouth and West Cumbria, as well as easy links to the A66 and M6 motorway, making Ireby a convenient location for those needing straightforward and reliable travel routes. Ireby offers a perfect balance of rural living with convenient access to surrounding towns, the National Park and the beautiful Cumbrian landscape.
