A no onward chain, well presented two-bedroom semi detached home.

We have always found Washford Farm to be a desirable location for young first time buyers or investors, as the property had been previously let at £1,300pcm! The home is located only a short walk to a number of local shops, schools and parks near-by.

Park up on the drive, where you will find space for two cars as well as access to that lovely large garden to rear. There's a handy entrance porch which leads into a generous lounge with picture window, & a well thought out kitchen which has plenty of work surface and storage within the wall and base units, as well as space for the appliances you need. There is also a useful understairs storage cupboard too. The stairs rise from the hall, upstairs you will find two good size double bedrooms and a large family bathroom that comprises of a shower over bath, wash hand basin and w/c. Both bedrooms are equally well sized, with bedroom 2 overlooking the rear garden and the master bedroom offering plenty of floor space for the largest of beds.

Outside, there is a private, delightful rear garden, mainly laid to lawn, with a raised decked area, and a large timber storage shed, plus a further space to the side of the home, where more parking could be available if required.
