Foxglove Road, Willesborough, Ashford, TN24 0RA

Offers Over £375,000

Three Bedroom Detached Family Home | Garage & Parking | Popular Willesborough Location

Situated within a popular and well-established residential area of Willesborough, this attractive three bedroom detached home offers generous accommodation, excellent parking facilities and plenty of potential for a new owner to modernise and create their ideal family home.

The property is ideally positioned for those looking for a convenient family lifestyle, with a parade of local shops close by for everyday essentials, while a number of schools and amenities are also within easy reach. The highly regarded Norton Knatchbull School is nearby, making the location particularly appealing to families, while Ashford International Station is also easily accessible, providing high-speed rail connections to London and excellent links for commuters.

Internally, the accommodation is well proportioned throughout. The ground floor is centred around a particularly impressive sitting/dining room, measuring approximately 23'11" x 16'6", providing a fantastic amount of space for family life, entertaining and relaxing. There is also a modern fitted kitchen, downstairs WC, useful lean-to and a bright conservatory overlooking the rear garden.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two generous double bedrooms, together with a modern shower room. The accommodation offers plenty of flexibility for a growing family, with each bedroom providing useful space for furniture and storage.

Outside, the property benefits from a garage and driveway parking, providing valuable off-road parking, while the rear garden offers a pleasant outside space for children, entertaining or simply enjoying the warmer months.

One of the property's real attractions is the combination of its existing modern kitchen and bathroom with the opportunity to update and improve the remainder of the home. This gives prospective buyers the chance to gradually modernise the property and put their own stamp on it, without needing to undertake a complete renovation from day one.

Foxglove Road is particularly well placed for family living, combining a peaceful residential setting with convenient access to local amenities, schools, transport links and the wider amenities of Ashford. With its generous living accommodation, three good-sized bedrooms, garage, parking and scope for further improvement, this represents a fantastic opportunity to acquire a detached family home in a popular part of Willesborough. Perfectly suited to families, first-time buyers or those looking for a detached home with the opportunity to add value and create something truly their own.
