

Eaton Rise, London

£875,000

Council Tax:

Tenure: Leasehold -
Share of Freehold

This impressive penthouse boasts a variety of desirable features. The bright open plan living/kitchen area creates a serene atmosphere, ensuring both convenience and functionality. The spacious bedroom provides ample of space, while the stylish family-sized bathroom adds a touch of elegance.

In addition to these appealing features, A lengthy lease of an impressive 999 years, starting from 2019, making it a secure investment. Furthermore, there is no onward chain, allowing for a seamless transaction.

This property is situated in a highly sought-after residential area, in close proximity to Ealing Broadway town centre and Walpole Park. Spanning 28 acres, Walpole Park has recently undergone a significant multi-million-pound renovation, with the restoration of Pitshanger Manor House and Gallery becoming a central highlight of the park's improvements.

