A Beautiful Period Home with an Oasis of a Garden Chain free and filled with warmth, character and charm, this beautifully presented period terrace is one of those homes that feels special from the moment you step inside. Lovingly maintained throughout, it retains many of the features that make period properties so appealing, including original-style fireplaces and wood flooring, while offering a wonderfully comfortable and inviting feel. The spacious accommodation includes two welcoming reception rooms, with one enjoying a lovely outlook over the garden. A charming understairs seating area creates a cosy little nook, leading through to the delightful cottage-style kitchen. Upstairs, there are two bright double bedrooms, a generous family bathroom and the unexpected bonus of a useful storage room. Outside, the garden feels like a little world of its own. Beautifully established and filled with greenery, it is peaceful, private and alive with visiting wildlife. There are two useful storage sheds, plenty of space to sit and entertain, and a wonderful sense of seclusion, with the property not overlooked to either the front or rear. All this is sitting within St Werburghs nursery and primary school catchment and boasting on street parking. A home full of warmth, character and little touches of magic, with a garden that feels like your own private haven. A truly lovely home that needs to be experienced to appreciate quite how special it feels.
