A Beautifully Characterful Home in a Quiet Position Tucked away at the top of a peaceful street between Easton and Greenbank, this wonderfully welcoming home combines generous living space with an abundance of period character and charm. Extended on the ground floor, the property offers two large reception rooms, a bathroom and a spacious kitchen/breakfast room opening directly onto the garden. Upstairs are three comfortable double bedrooms, with the converted loft space providing a versatile additional room. Outside, the private green garden is a lovely extension of the living space, offering a peaceful spot to relax and entertain. But it's the feel of this house that really sets it apart. Full of warmth, character and charm, it has that rare combination of being both spacious and wonderfully cosy, a home that feels inviting from the moment you walk through the door. Add to this the excellent position, with all the independent cafés, shops, bars and businesses of Easton and Greenbank close by, and you have a truly special family home in a fantastic setting. A property that really needs to be seen to appreciate its space, character and welcoming feel.
