**This location will not disappoint!** A very well presented and maintained period home tucked behind St Marks Road with arguably the best restaurant, cafes and fresh food stores in the area at either end of the road. The garden is a South Facing tranquil private sun trap with a huge palm tree, sheltered bike & wood store and rear gated access! Inside offers beautifully finished character in the ceiling roses and archways leading to a bright open plan lounge diner complete with a window seat and French doors to the garden. The kitchen has a breakfast bar and leads to the laundry lobby and large four piece bathroom. Upstairs offers a sunny landing with skylight with three generous bedrooms and built in storage. This is all chain free, so please make contact to have a look inside.
