- 2 double bedroom period cottage
- In excellent order throughout
- Town centre location
- Character features
- Living room with open fireplace
- Kitchen/breakfast with bespoke units
- Separate utility room
- Gas combi boiler
- Secluded rear garden

In excellent order and newly decorated, a deceptively spacious two double bedroom cottage situated in the heart of the town. The property benefits from gas central heating and retains many period features including two open fireplaces, beams and exposed stone walls.

The accommodation comprises of an entrance hall with cloaks cupboard, living room with stone fireplace, kitchen/breakfast room with a range of bespoke units and solid wood work surface, gas combi boiler and space for a table and chairs. To the rear there is a utility room, bathroom with shower over the bath and a rear lobby with door to the secluded garden.

On the first floor there are two well proportioned double bedrooms. Bedroom 2 has an open fireplace and built-in storage cupboards.

The rear garden is fully enclosed with a patio area and lawn. All town centre facilities are within close proximity, including the two Bicester train stations to London, Birmingham and Oxford.
