Situated in the most desirable close in the heart of Bicester and within a short walk of all town facilities and the bus station, this attractive 4 bedroom detached house is offered to the market with no onward chain. The property has been built with old stock bricks and benefits from an attached double garage. The house has a good size, mature, private sunny garden to the rear backing onto an open green with mature trees. Nestled near the end of the cul-de-sac, this family home offers well proportioned accommodation over two floors with potential for further expansion subject to current planning laws.

The current owners have upgraded many areas of the house including new double glazing to the rear of the property, refitted cloakroom, bathroom and en-suite, new RCD board fitted in 2021, separate electrics for the garage, new gas combi boiler fitted in 2023 and an EV charging point on the driveway.

The accommodation comprises of a hall, cloakroom, dining room, kitchen/breakfast with breakfast bar, hob, extractor hood and new oven, dual aspect living room. On the first floor bedroom 1 benefits from new carpeting and a refitted en-suite shower room, there are two further bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a fourth bedroom overlooking the greenery to the rear.

The double garage is attached with personal door to the rear and driveway parking in front for four vehicles. The mature rear garden contains a summerhouse, raised bed, patio and flower borders.

This is a rarely available gem, located in a quiet spot yet a heartbeat away from the hustle and bustle of the town.
