RESIDE IN THE LAND OF THE PRINCE BISHOPS...Hunters are delighted to present to the market this niche bespoke period property which has been tastefully transformed from an iconic landmark, into what we believe to be, one of County Durham's most prestigious residences nestled in a prime position overlooking The Village Green within this ancient village dating back as early as the 8th century, administered by English Heritage as a conservation area. The residence includes five distinctive apartments and a detached Coach House, each distinctively tailored whilst boasting a historical charm and individuality carefully nurtured by one of the regions superior local craftsmen. Easington Village is situated within reach of a new railway station in the neighbouring village and the A19 which interconnects with all regional centres including the beautiful historical City of Durham some 10.4 miles by car, the vibrant harbour town of Seaham and Hartlepool which consistently hosts the infamous Tall ships race. The village is centred around a beautiful village green and the 12th -13th century St Mary's church, it includes a popular academy school with good Ofsted reports, offers an enchanting village ambience and lies a short distance from the scenic heritage coastline.

COMMUNAL ENTRANCE

Conveniently nestled within the inner courtyard, the sizeable entrance foyer facilitates the security door intercom system which opens the main door into the communal entrance hallway with attractive floor tiling at the entrance leading to a stunning period newel posted spindle staircase leading to the subsequent upper floors of the property.
