Prospect Lane, Solihull B91 1HN

This beautifully extended four-bedroom detached residence offers a rare blend of character, space, and privacy, set well back from the road behind a generous paved driveway providing ample parking for multiple vehicles.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a bright and spacious entrance hallway, setting the tone for the well-balanced accommodation throughout. The ground floor boasts three versatile reception rooms, ideal for modern family living. A charming dining room features an attractive brick fireplace, mirrored by a similarly styled fireplace in the main lounge, which has been thoughtfully extended to create a particularly generous and inviting living space. A delightful sun room sits to the rear, offering tranquil views over the stunning garden and flooding the home with natural light.

The kitchen dining area provides a sociable heart to the home, complemented by a separate laundry room for added practicality.

To the first floor, there are four bedrooms. The principal bedroom has been extended and benefits from its own ensuite facilities. A family bathroom and separate WC serve the remaining bedrooms.

A standout feature is the converted loft space, currently used as a highly adaptable area—perfect as a playroom or home office—with clear potential to be transformed into a fifth bedroom, subject to building regulations and replacement of the current space saver staircase by a traditional staircase.

Location

Prospect Lane, located within the highly desirable B91 postcode, enjoys a prime position in the affluent town of Solihull, one of the West Midlands' most sought-after residential areas. Known for its blend of leafy surroundings and excellent amenities, this location offers an exceptional balance between suburban tranquillity and convenient access to urban hubs.

The property sits within easy reach of Solihull Town Centre, which provides an impressive array of shopping facilities, including the popular Touchwood Shopping Centre, home to a wide selection of high-end retailers, restaurants, cafés, and entertainment options. For everyday needs, there are also a variety of local shops, supermarkets, and services nearby.

The area is particularly well-regarded for its outstanding educational opportunities, with a number of highly rated state and independent schools within close proximity, making it especially attractive for families.

For commuters, Prospect Lane is ideally positioned. Solihull Railway Station offers regular and direct services to Birmingham and London, while the nearby M42, M40, and M6 motorway networks provide excellent road links across the Midlands and beyond. Birmingham Airport is also just a short drive away, ideal for both business and leisure travel.

Despite its accessibility, the area retains a peaceful, semi-rural feel, with an abundance of green spaces and countryside walks nearby. Malvern and Brueton Park is a particular highlight, offering beautiful parkland, woodland, and leisure facilities.

Overall, Prospect Lane combines exclusivity, convenience, and a high quality of life, making it one of Solihull's most desirable residential addresses.

Garden

The rear garden is a standout feature of the home—exceptionally private, beautifully landscaped, and arranged across three distinct sections. The first features a large lawn bordered by mature shrubs, with a York stone patio and water feature by the house. The second offers a secluded retreat with a spacious patio for al fresco dining, additional lawns, a water feature, and a small greenhouse. The third is designed for productivity and leisure, with raised beds for fruit and vegetables, a garden shed, and informal flower beds set within gravelled surroundings.

Mature trees, evergreen hedging, and approximately two-metre-high fencing surround the garden, ensuring a high degree of privacy throughout.
