Locomotive, 207 Byerley Road, Shildon, DL4 1HL

Price £180,000

Unique commercial property offered for sale in Shildon, presenting an exceptional opportunity for prospective buyers. The property boasts a large bar area and lounge with a spacious four-bedroom flat situated above, providing a comfortable living space. This arrangement could offer the convenience of living and working in the same location, making it an ideal investment for those looking to either be in the business or rent it to a tenant who is.

Attracting either an experienced member or a newcomer to the hospitality industry, this pub offers a promising venture in a local community for a variety of uses, previously a restaurant as well as the many years a public house. Featuring a large garden, perfect for customer use during the warmer months and providing further opportunity for events or gatherings. This historic pub, originally designed to resemble a locomotive steam train, is not only a nod to the area's railway heritage but also a striking landmark in a prime corner plot.

Located just off the A607, on Byerley Road a main bus route through the town, this location is ideal for a variety of businesses.
