Planning Consent

Planning permission has been granted by Dudley Metropolitan Borough Council for the demolition of the existing garage and outbuilding and the erection of one additional dwelling within the grounds (Application Ref: P25/1101, decision dated 19 December 2025). This presents an excellent opportunity for purchasers seeking development potential or a self-build project, subject to the approved plans and conditions.

Planning permission relates to the approved scheme only. Any alterations or alternative development proposals would be subject to further consent. Buyers should satisfy themselves with regard to site boundaries, access arrangements and all planning conditions contained within the decision notice.
