Summary...

A perfect example of a traditional and beautifully presented three bedroom detached family home with stunning views across Stevens Park. Benefitting from a completely replaced roof and a driveway for up to three cars; the property has been heavily improved by the current sellers and offers turn-key accommodation which briefly comprises of porch and welcoming entrance hall, well appointed sitting room into bay, spacious lounge with feature fire place and french doors to rear garden, stunning kitchen diner complete with Quartz worksurfaces and guest WC completing the ground floor. Continuing upstairs leads to three well proportioned bedrooms with bedroom one having fitted wardrobes and bay window, and modern shower room. The rear garden is thoughtfully laid-out with a variety of private seating areas, mature shrubs and gated side access. Additional benefits include being closely located to reputable nearby schools and Stourbridge Junction, walks across open fields and is offered with no upward chain. Viewings are highly recommended to appreciate what this lovely property has to offer.
