Summary...

*OFFERED WITH NO UPWARD CHAIN. A genuine rare find and stunning example of an attractive double fronted Victorian-style Abutting detached family home displaying an abundance of original features. Occupying a naturally elevated position with beautiful foregarden overlooking Amblecote recreation ground; 'Overdale' boasts a driveway located to the rear of the property within an elegant and thoughtfully laid-out private garden. Favouring a convenient location within walking distance to Amblecote primary school and children's playground, local shops, pubs and easy access to Stourbridge Town and Wollaston Village. To summarise the accommodation on offer, in brief the property comprises of an impressive reception hall complete with minton tiled floor, cornice and stair panelling, lounge with feature fire place and wooden floor, separate sitting room with additional fire place and bay window, bright and airy garden room with generous ceiling height, spacious kitchen diner with oak units, Corian worksurfaces and sink, Lacanche oven and parquet flooring, separate boot room accessed via vaulted storm porch and downstairs cloakroom adding an essential sense of practicality. Continuing upstairs leads to a gallery landing with feature stained glass window and loft access, three well proportioned bedrooms and timeless family bathroom. The rear garden offers a private and secluded oasis with manicured shaped lawn, Victorian blue-brick paving, rambling roses and mature shrub screening. Additional benefits include a usable cellar providing useful storage space and outside store with housed central heating boiler. This property MUST BE VIEWED to appreciate what's on offer and is well matched to any discerning buyers who admire the traditional-style homes that very rarely become available.
