Guide price £475,000 - £500,000 * An opportunity to purchase a beautiful family home, thoughtfully improved and heavily extended, located on a desirable road within the quaint village of Little Wymondley.

Internally the home comprises of a spacious entrance hallway which gives access into the extended lounge with log burner and French doors out to the rear garden, a WC plus a separate downstairs shower room and a beautifully modernised kitchen/diner which opens through into a spacious conservatory.

Upstairs you have a large landing and access to all three of the double bedrooms, the main bedroom giving access into the huge en-suite (which forms the upper level of the double story extension).

Outside you have a large rear garden with a patio seating area, which steps up to the lawn and has a further seating area to the rear underneath the pretty pergola. You also have back access via a right of access through the neighbours garden and comes complete with a driveway to the front for one car (which could be extended to accommodate more).

Little Wymondley offers a tranquil countryside lifestyle supported by essential local amenities and a close-knit community. The village retains its historic charm, with a welcoming social scene centred around the popular pub, access to outdoor recreation, and everyday services close at hand. It is also well regarded for its highly desirable local school, adding to its appeal for families. For a wider range of shopping, entertainment, and specialist facilities, Hitchin and Stevenage are easily reached by car or bus.
