The Indoors

Entered via the beautiful front garden into the expansive kitchen and dining area, where an introduction of sunlight from dawn till dusk, extends an invitation to the bi-fold doors that open into a spacious kitchen and dining area. Here, natural light pours in, enhancing the space's airy, uncluttered aesthetic creating a fresh and crisp atmosphere. This space is perfect for entertaining, with its high-end finishes with polished wooden cabinetry and in-built oven with additional ample storage. The ground floor also includes a chic bathroom, featuring a walk-in shower and heated towel rack and modern fixtures and fittings, walls painted in 'Pleat' by Little Greene to match the teal of the tiles, further enhancing the home's earthy, naturalistic theme and a polished feel creating a cohesive and tranquil space. The hallway sets the tone throughout this contemporary haven.

On the first floor, you'll find two of the home's most alluring spaces. The living room, with its exposed floor joists and custom media furniture, is both functional and atmospheric. The restoration and painting of metal brackets in Little Greene's 'Lamp Black' adds a touch of industrial chic, while the seamless integration of the Samsung Frame TV cable into the wall enhances the room's minimalist appeal. This room bathed in natural light, creates a sense of comfort and spaciousness, perfect for gatherings or a cinematic feel for a more intimate setting.

Adjacent is the first bedroom, a luxurious sanctuary with exposed joists in the ceiling and painted walls in 'Calming Debate Club' by Coat. The wide plank engineered oak flooring in a light matte varnish runs throughout this level, adding to the home's naturalistic theme. As the sun rises on this side of the house, the room is bathed in angelic morning light.

A striking feature of this home is the VELFAC composite triple-glazed windows installed on the first and second floors. With their natural pine interior finish and sleek aluminium grey exterior, these windows not only enhance the home's aesthetic but also contribute to its energy efficiency, maintaining a steady 20°C throughout the year with minimal heating required on the top floor. Ascending to the top floor, you'll discover that it's a haven of space and light, inspired by the owners during their house hunting journey.

The top-floor bathroom, the design takes a contemporary turn with white terrazzo flooring, and glass brick shower walls. The exposed beams, adorned with hanging plants that thrive on the steam that add a touch of nature, while the premium stainless-steel hardware from Crosswater elevates the space to a luxurious retreat. The bathroom features a double-height ceiling and an electronically controlled Velux skylight that automatically closes at the first sign of rain. The room's ambiance allows light to flow through the space, dimmable spotlights that cast beautiful shadows, creating a serene, spa-like atmosphere. The top-floor bedrooms continue the home's theme of comfort and luxury, with exposed joists, built-in wardrobes and features plaster walls sealed with four coats of varnish, ensuring durability while retaining the raw, natural beauty of the material exposed with matching 'Masquerade' by Little Greene painted woodwork that harmonize with the natural light that fills each room.
