Loving The Location

Located moments from the renowned Victoria Park which is one of London's most treasured outdoor spaces. Established in 1888, the nearby Roman Road Market survived the influx of covered shopping centres in the 1970s and continues to thrive as an east London tradition. It is one of London's oldest roads and is historically the main entryway to the city from the east. It sits in a truly enviable location, surrounded by green spaces — Meath Gardens, Mile End Park and Victoria Park are all nearby. Roman Road's cafés, restaurants and independent shops are just around the corner, and you can walk to Bow Road Underground and the DLR (District, Hammersmith & City, and other routes). The number 8 bus stops just outside the property and is approximately a 10–15 minute journey to the Central line.
