The Home -

Occupying an impressive position on one of Lower Clapton's most sought-after residential streets, this substantial Victorian house extends to over 3,600 sq ft, including a self-contained garden annexe, creating an exceptional family home with remarkable flexibility.

Behind its elegant façade, beautifully proportioned Victorian rooms unfold across four floors, where original architectural details sit alongside expansive contemporary living spaces created through a thoughtfully designed rear extension. The result is a home that offers immediate comfort while presenting an exciting opportunity for a new owner to personalise and elevate over time.

A generous rear garden, self-contained annexe and an abundance of versatile accommodation make this a rare opportunity in the heart of E5.

The Indoors

The house immediately showcases the scale synonymous with late Victorian architecture. High ceilings, original cornicing, decorative fireplaces and wide bay windows provide elegant proportions throughout the principal rooms, while natural light pours through large stained-glass sash windows to the front of the house.

The formal reception room is beautifully proportioned, centred around an original fireplace and broad bay window overlooking the tree-lined street, creating a calm and welcoming everyday living space.

To the rear, the home opens into an expansive family room that flows effortlessly into the dining area and kitchen. Stretching almost the full length of the property, this impressive space has been designed around family life, with oversized sliding doors framing the garden and allowing inside and outside to connect seamlessly throughout the warmer months.

The kitchen offers extensive cabinetry, generous worktop space and room for multiple cooks, while remaining connected to both the dining space and family room. Beyond, a bright additional family area provides an ideal children's playroom, reading room or informal snug.

The lower ground floor offers further flexibility with its own reception room, bedroom and shower room, making it equally suited to guest accommodation, independent family living or a dedicated work-from-home suite.

Across the upper floors are six further bedrooms, each enjoying excellent proportions and natural light. The principal bedroom retains its original fireplace, impressive ceiling height and bay window, while the loft conversion provides a wonderfully spacious top-floor retreat with en-suite bathroom and far-reaching rooftop views.

Throughout the house, the accommodation offers an ideal balance between beautifully preserved Victorian character and exciting potential for cosmetic enhancement, allowing the next owner to create something truly special.

The Outdoors

Large sliding doors open onto a wonderfully established rear garden where mature trees, fruit planting and established borders create an unusually private setting. The garden feels wonderfully green and enclosed, with generous paved terraces providing plenty of space for entertaining, outdoor dining and family life.

At the far end of the garden sits a substantial detached annexe extending to almost 700 sq ft. Complete with its own kitchen, bathroom, mezzanine bedroom and independent access, it offers exceptional flexibility as guest accommodation, multigenerational living, a home office, studio or income-generating opportunity.
