The Indoors

As you enter you have a useful area for coat and shoes storage, the first of the doors leading off the hallway open onto the reception room, there is a large double glazed window that floods the space with natural light and handy built in shelving either side of the chimney breast. The first bedroom has a double glazed window and plenty of room for a double bed, built in shelving and fitted wardrobes. The second bedroom has ample room for a double bed and a wardrobe, fitted shelves and a double glazed window.

The kitchen is well stocked with plenty of cupboards and worktop space, built in oven with a gas hob and extractor above, washing machine, tiled splash-back and a double glazed window. The tiled bathroom is equipped with a bath and shower attachment, hand basin and a double glazed window.

Loving the location

Two of London's most popular green spaces, Victoria

Park and London Fields (with its heated lido), are both a short walk away. Weekly food markets take place at Victoria Park and Broadway Market - with its plethora of independent shops and cafes including Climpson and Sons. Columbia Road Flower Market is also a short walk away.

There are many fantastic local restaurants, notably Elliot's, Bright, Mare Street Market, Cafe Cecilia and Bistrottheque, a slightly further walk to the south. E5 Bakehouse, on the edge of London Fields, is excellent for freshly baked artisan bread, as is The Bread Station and nearby Netil Market is a thriving hub of restaurants, breweries and coffee roasters.

London Fields and Cambridge Heath Overground stations are equidistant for quick trains into Liverpool Street. Bethnal Green Underground (central line) is roughly a ten minute walk. Numerous buses run along Mare Street towards central London, as well as from Well Street/Cassland Road into the City and Canary Wharf.
