The Indoors

Behind the handsome Victorian façade, the house unfolds across generous, interconnected living spaces that celebrate its original proportions and architectural detailing. The bay-fronted reception room is wonderfully calm, framed by intricate cornicing, an original marble fireplace and warm timber floorboards, with large sash windows drawing in natural light throughout the day. Sliding through to the dining room, original fireplaces, bespoke paintwork and restored floors create a natural continuation of the home's character. Full-height openings connect each room while retaining their individual identity, allowing the ground floor to feel sociable without losing its sense of intimacy.

To the rear, the kitchen is bright and functional, fitted with painted shaker cabinetry, solid timber worktops, a Belfast sink and integrated appliances. A breakfast bar enjoys views over the garden through oversized windows, making it an inviting spot for everyday meals, morning coffee or working from home. A substantial cellar provides excellent storage, workshop potential or scope for future conversion, subject to the usual permissions.

Arranged across the upper floors are four well-proportioned bedrooms. The first floor is home to an impressive main bedroom occupying the full width of the house, where a large bay window, original fireplace and restored floorboards create a wonderfully peaceful retreat. Alongside sits a further double bedroom overlooking the garden and a beautifully finished family bathroom with classic white tiling, separate shower and bath. The second floor offers two further bedrooms, including a spacious top-floor room with bespoke fitted wardrobes and a tranquil outlook across neighbouring gardens. The fourth bedroom is perfectly suited as a nursery, guest room or home office.

The Outdoors

Extending to approximately 70ft, the rear garden feels wonderfully established and private. Carefully landscaped with reclaimed brick paving, mature planting, palms, ferns and evergreen borders, it has a distinctly secluded feel rarely found so close to central Hackney. Multiple seating areas allow the space to evolve throughout the day, from morning coffee outside the kitchen to long summer evenings beneath the trees.
