THE JAM FACTORY 27 GREEN WALK LONDON, SE1 4TX

£3,250 PER MONTH

Originally the home of Sir William Hartley's, Hartley jam and preserves production, The Jam Factory is how you carry out an industrial conversion to become a modern social hub set in a thriving location. Finished to the highest of modern standards whilst reinvigorating and emphasising the charm of the original architecture. Set on the second floor of this wonderful building with a large south facing balcony and stretching to nearly 1200sqft. The accommodation is adaptable and consists of two double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a spacious open plan dual aspect kitchen/reception that leads to the balcony through triple doors. There is also plenty of storage for all manner of things that modern life requires, as well as somewhere for the bike within in the block and a private parking space available upon separate negotiation. All set securely behind the original 1901 gates and monitored by 24 hour concierge service alongside peaceful landscaped gardens.

Ideally located for access to the City and Canary Wharf and close to numerous excellent local amenities including the world-famous Borough Market, Bermondsey Street and the iconic River Thames. Set between London Bridge, Elephant and Castle and Bermondsey tube stations with a range of boutique cafes, restaurants and bars close by.
