THE JAM FACTORY

- Two double bedrooms • Two bathrooms • Open plan kitchen/reception • Balcony • Private parking space • Communal gardens • 24 hour concierge • Iconic listed building • Fantastic location

Originally the home of Sir William Hartley's, Hartley jam and preserves production, The Jam Factory is a landmark industrial conversion that has been transformed into a modern social hub set in a thriving location. Finished to the highest of modern standards whilst reinvigorating and emphasising the charm of the original architecture.

Set on the second floor of this outstanding building with a large south facing balcony and stretching to nearly 1200sqft this could be a buyers principle residence, pied-à-terre or investment. The accommodation is adaptable and consists of two double bedrooms, two bathrooms, a spacious open plan dual aspect kitchen/reception that leads to the balcony through triple doors. There is plenty of storage for all manner of things that modern life requires, as well as somewhere for the bike within the block and a dedicated private parking space. All set securely behind the original 1901 gates and monitored by 24 hour concierge service alongside peaceful landscaped gardens.

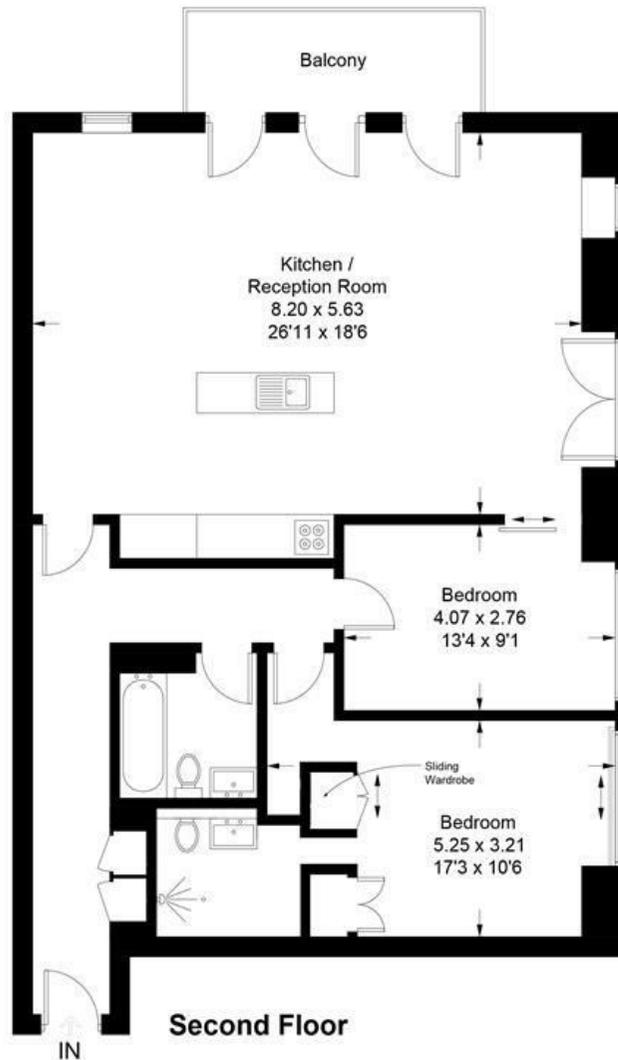

Ideally located for access to the City and Canary Wharf and close to numerous excellent local amenities including the world-famous Borough Market, Bermondsey Street and the iconic River Thames. Set between London Bridge, Elephant and Castle and Bermondsey tube stations with a range of boutique cafes, restaurants and bars close by.
