THE PROPERTY

A converted former methodist chapel located in the heart of the village of Tirley with good access to Cheltenham, Tewkesbury and Gloucester in either direction.

The property is offered on a furnished basis and retains some beautiful features such as stained glass windows and vaulted ceilings. The ground floor comprises of a small hallway, open plan living space with wood burner and comfortable seating area, dining space and modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances and doors to the terrace and a WC.

The first floor has a large principle bedroom with built-in storage and windows to both sides, modern shower room and a second galleried room which makes an ideal home office / occasional guest room. The property is warmed by oil fired central heating.

Outside there is ample gated parking for several cars, private terrace off the kitchen, further terrace to the rear and a raised garden with lawns surrounding the front of the property.

Due to the configuration of the first floor of the property it is suitable for a couple or single person only.
