THE PROPERTY

A magnificent, Cotswold stone house with quite possibly the most stunning views in all the Cotswolds. The property is located in the village of Willersey in Broadway and has commanding views over the local countryside from all angles. Originally built in the 1920's this imposing property has been extended and updated to the highest standards throughout.

Internally the property offers well-proportioned quality accommodation with the ground floor comprising of an entrance hallway with storage and cloakroom, sitting room with wood burning stove, a large open plan living / dining kitchen with stone floors and a high specification fitted kitchen complete with two ovens, steam oven, microwave, warming drawer, fridge freezer and wine cooler, dishwasher and electric hob with granite surfaces and solid wooden units, formal dining room, media room / second sitting room, large furnished study, ground floor shower room, fitted utility room and boot room.

The first-floor accommodation comprises of a master suite with a very well-appointed en suite with shower and jacuzzi bath, shower and twin basins, spacious bedroom with window seat to take in the breath-taking views, fitted dressing room with a spiral staircase to a study / further dressing area. Bedroom two is a king sized room with a further en suite bathroom with shower, twin basins and jacuzzi bath overlooking the gardens. Bedroom three is a further generous double room with fully fitted dressing room and en suite shower room. Bedroom four is a further double room with a lovely en suite built into the turret at the rear of the property and has a freestanding bath and walk-in shower.

Externally the property has a large double garage with lighting and power and a self-contained studio above which would provide a fifth bedroom ideal for visiting guests or as a home office away from the main residence. There is also a wood store and summer house on the second level of the gardens.
