 NO ONWARD CHAIN

Located in the charming area of Fife Street, Abercynon, this semi-detached villa offers an excellent opportunity for couples or families to shape a home that truly reflects their lifestyle. Spacious, welcoming, and full of promise, it's a property that—with some updating—would blend comfort, room to grow, and the foundations of modern living.

Step through the hallway into a bright and inviting reception room, where double-aspect windows fill the space with natural light. The bay window frames lovely views across the valley, creating a standout feature that elevates the room, while the original fireplace surround adds charm and character. Whether you're unwinding after a busy day or hosting friends, this is a space that will feel effortlessly welcoming.

The newly fitted contemporary kitchen is the true heart of the home. With sleek finishes, modern appliances, and double doors leading directly to the lower patio, it's ideal for both family meals and easy entertaining. A separate utility room and covered outdoor area add even more practicality, giving you the space needed for everyday living.
