...WE SELL COMMERCIAL

Exciting opportunity to purchase a well established and profitable commercial recreation and sports facility business, together with leasing the trading premises which benefits from access to generous communal parking facilities, occupying a convenient location, situated off Green Road, Ballyclare.

The business boasts a loyal customer base and strong, consistent turnover, generating diversified income streams primarily through renting playing surfaces for leagues, private games, training sessions, and events like birthday parties.

The leased premises has been converted to provide year-round, weather-proof facilities and currently utilises the space with two indoor football pitches (encompassing the flexibility to facilitate a plethora of uses), large store room, first floor mezzanine viewing gallery, fitted kitchenette, and office/store.

The property further benefits from access to generous car parking areas front and rear, and the option (via separate negotiation) to purchase an external portacabin comprising changing rooms, party room, and washroom facilities.

This entrenched business allows any new buyer the ability to continue trading immediately and the current landlord is open to renewing the lease period (subject to market value, terms and conditions at time of negotiation).

The business is being tendered for sale due to our clients' desire to pursue a new venture
