A tastefully refurbished terraced Victorian house oozing great charm and character, occupying an elevated position set off the Brighton Road being only a short walk from the town centre and main line station serving London Waterloo in 45mins. A useful glazed lobby provides extra storage space and the living room benefits from original pine floorboards and a wood burning stove. The kitchen boasts a tiled floor, solid oak worktops and a butler's sink. Sisal carpeting upstairs keeps the flooring natural throughout. The main bedroom features exposed beams, stylish wainscoting and a built-in cupboard. The bathroom is smartly designed with underfloor heating and more painted wood panelling. The rear studio is fully heated and insulated and provides valuable additional space.
