

40 Ashfield Avenue, Normanton, WF6 2GA

The ground floor offers well-planned living accommodation, comprising a welcoming lounge with useful storage, a spacious dining kitchen, separate utility room, and a ground floor WC. To the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a contemporary house bathroom, making it ideal for modern family living.

A standout feature of this property is the exceptionally large rear garden — a rare and impressive addition for a home of this type, providing fantastic outdoor space for families, entertaining, or future potential. The property also benefits from ample off-street parking.

Perfectly suited to couples or growing families, the property is superbly located with excellent access to transport links, including nearby train stations and motorway networks, as well as local schools and amenities.

Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, location, and lifestyle this home has to offer.
