Modern 1-Bedroom Home with Additional Room & Eco-Friendly Features – Castleford

This well-presented 1-bedroom house offers flexible living space rarely found in similar rental properties and will appeal to tenants who may also be considering two-bedroom homes.

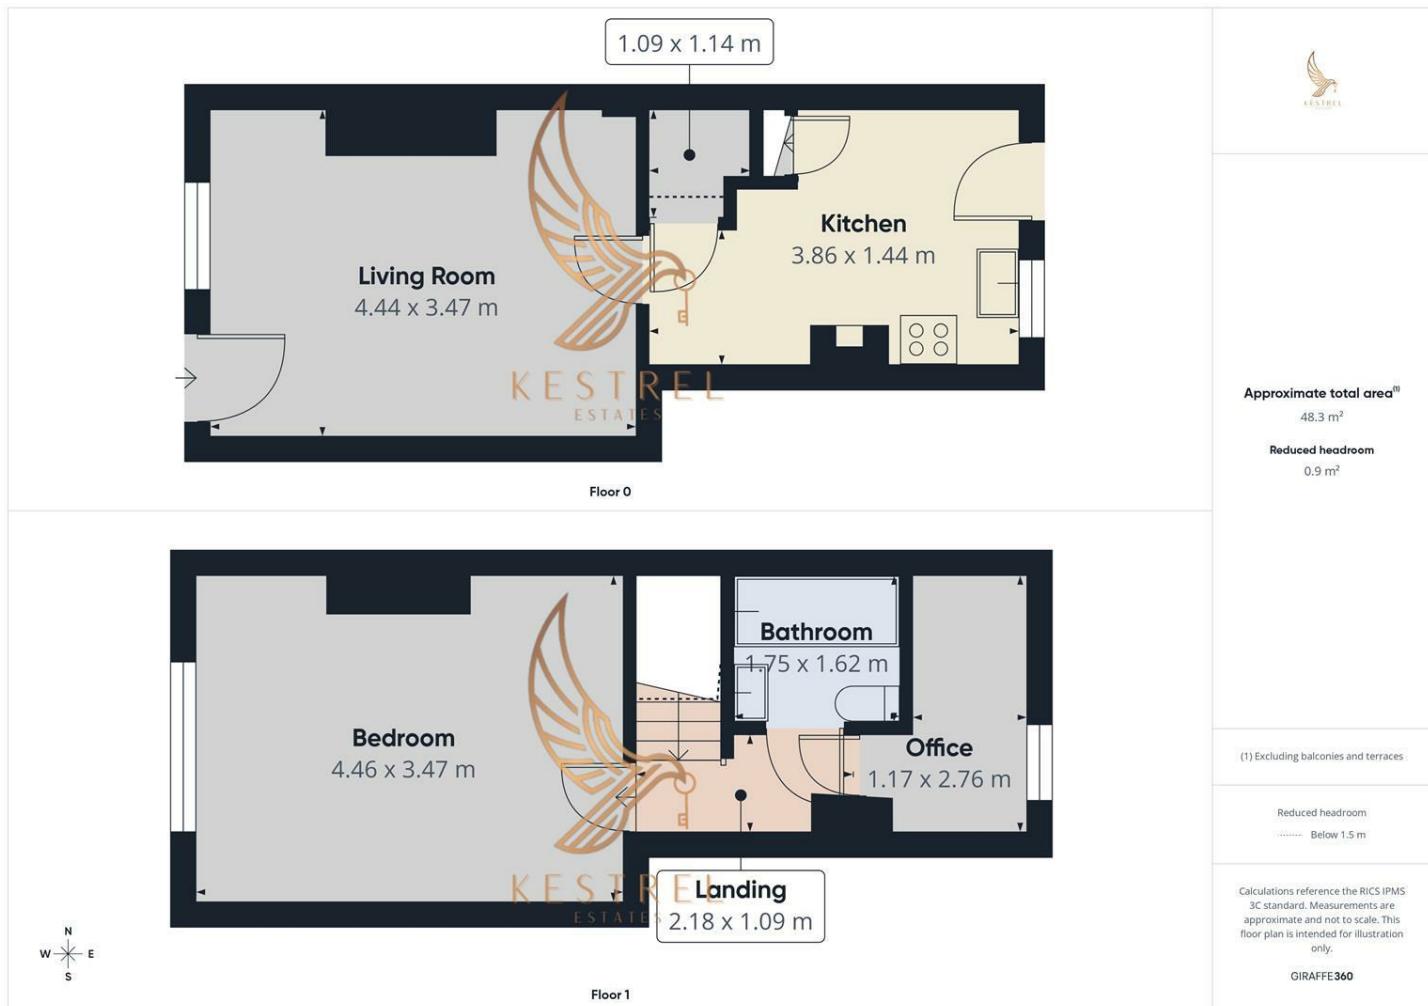

Alongside a spacious main bedroom, the property benefits from an additional room, ideal for use as a nursery, home office, or study—perfect for professionals working from home, couples, or small families seeking extra space without the cost of a larger property.

A standout feature of the home is its energy-efficient setup, including solar panels with battery storage and an air source heat pump, helping to keep running costs low and making the property both economical and environmentally friendly.

This property offers the space and flexibility many renters look for in a one-bedroom home, making it an excellent value rental option.
