Detached Rural Cottage set within half an acre in a beautiful hillside setting with Stone Barns and Outstanding Views

Auction Date - 29th October 2025

A traditional extended double-fronted cottage set within half an acre of grounds, enjoying an elevated rural position high above the beautiful Conwy Valley. This charming stone-built home, together with two stone outbuildings, offers enormous potential for sympathetic upgrading and improvement. The property remains generally in good order but would need some improvement., retaining a wealth of original character features including exposed beams, deep stone fireplaces and traditional sash windows.

Accommodation currently provides a living room, dining room, kitchen, bathroom and bedrooms, with scope to remodel and extend further (subject to necessary consents).

Location

The location is truly special – tucked away from the hustle and bustle, the cottage enjoys panoramic views across the Conwy Valley and surrounding hills. A rare opportunity to acquire a traditional country home in a private setting, yet within easy reach of local towns and villages.

Key Features
