Upper Colwyn Bay LL29 6AG

£795,000

A substantial detached home enjoying an elevated setting with panoramic coastal views stretching across Colwyn Bay, Rhos-on-Sea, towards the Little Orme.

VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

This deceptively large and versatile property sitting in a 1/2 acre plot offers extensive accommodation over three floors. Thoughtfully upgraded and improved by the present owners, and improved by the present owners and set within generous landscaped.

The property features a striking reception hall with vaulted ceiling, galleried landing and contemporary oak and glass staircase, creating an impressive first impression. The layout provides excellent flexibility, with spacious family living areas complemented by the option of a self-contained lower ground floor, ideal for a dependent relative, teenager, or potential Airbnb use.

- Recently installed central heating system with upgraded radiators
- Double glazing throughout
- High-quality bathroom and en-suite fittings
- Contemporary design details, including glazed balustrading and feature lighting
- Versatile layout with scope for multi-generational living or home-working

Approached via a driveway providing ample parking and access to an attached garage. Beautifully maintained gardens surround the home, offering lawned areas, seating terraces and mature planting, all with a backdrop of far-reaching coastal views.

Location

Situated in a select residential area of Upper Colwyn Bay, the property combines peace and privacy with convenience. It lies within easy reach of Colwyn Bay town centre, the promenade, Rhos-on-Sea and Llandudno. Excellent schools, including Rydal Penrhos, are close by, as well as transport links via the A55 North Wales Expressway.

- Stunning reception hall with feature glazing and staircase
- Light and spacious open plan living, kitchen and dining area with bi-fold doors leading onto a glass-fronted balcony to take full advantage of the coastal outlook
- Comfortable lounge with large bay window and log-burning stove, framing spectacular sea views
- Semi-circular turret-style first floor lounge with wraparound glazing, designed as a viewing room to maximise the panoramic coastal scenery
- Superb master suite with large en-suite bathroom and access onto a private balcony
- 3 further bedrooms all with ensuite facilities.
- Modern family bathroom
- Lower ground floor offering potential for self-contained accommodation
