Agent's Note

Prospective purchasers are advised that the property lies within the Eryri (Snowdonia) National Park where, with effect from 1 June 2025, an Article 4 Direction has introduced new planning use classes for residential dwellings. A permanent dwelling is classified as Use Class C3, a second home as Use Class C5, and a short-term holiday let (lettings of 31 days or fewer) as Use Class C6. Any change of use between these classes now requires planning permission from the National Park Authority. Purchasers should make their own enquiries and satisfy themselves with regard to the planning status of the property and any future intended use.

We believe this property to have an existing C6 classification but please check with relevant authorities.
