Location

Trefriw is a small rural village located in the Conwy Valley, partially situated within the Snowdonia National Park. The traditional market town of Llanrwst is 1 ½ miles away, The inland tourist resort of Betws y Coed lies 5 ½ miles to the south. The coastal towns of Llandudno and Colwyn Bay lie 12 miles north.

The welcoming reception hall features a striking composite double front door with full-height glazed side panel, creating a bright and inviting entrance. The solid oak and white-painted staircase rises to the first floor, while underfloor heating extends throughout the ground floor rooms.

The ground floor accommodation includes a stylish contemporary shower room, a spacious lounge with triple-aspect windows, and a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living area – the heart of the home – which opens directly onto the rear stone terrace via bi-folding glazed doors. The bespoke kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of wall and base units with integrated appliances, granite worktops, inset sink, and a central island with breakfast bar and pendant lighting over.

A separate utility room provides further worktop and storage space, sink unit, and plumbing for laundry appliances, as well as access to the plant room housing the air source heating system.

Upstairs, a light-filled landing leads to three well-proportioned double bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a dual aspect, taking in delightful views, and a stylish en-suite shower room complete with glazed enclosure, vanity wash basin, concealed cistern WC and heated towel rail. The remaining two double bedrooms enjoy views to the front and rear respectively.

The luxurious family bathroom is beautifully tiled and features a four-piece suite including a freestanding bath set within a recessed, softly-lit feature niche, a walk-in glazed shower enclosure, vanity wash basin and concealed WC.
