

Llys Llewellyn

Trefriw LL27 0JH

£345,000

A substantial Grade II listed, three-storey stone-built village house offering excellent potential, situated in the heart of the beautiful Conwy Valley.

Prominently positioned in the centre of Trefriw, within easy reach of all local amenities including village shops, Post Office, church, and scenic riverside walks, this charming period property offers a wealth of traditional character features and spacious accommodation over three floors.

Formerly utilised as a bed and breakfast, the property includes generous reception rooms on the ground floor and six bedrooms across the first and second floors, many enjoying views towards the surrounding hills and village.

Whilst requiring a programme of modernisation and upgrading, the property presents an excellent opportunity to create a fine family home or continue as a guest house, subject to necessary consents.
