For Sale – Former Warehouse with Planning
Permission in Town Centre location

A substantial former warehouse/light industrial building located within the town centre of Llanrwst, offering excellent potential for conversion into a striking contemporary home. This is the second of two warehouse conversions within the site. The adjoining warehouse has already been transformed into an impressive modern residence, providing a clear example of the potential on offer here.

The property benefits from full planning permission for residential conversion, with detailed plans available for inspection. Extending to approximately 214 m² (2,303 ft²) over two floors, the building provides a generous footprint for creating a spacious, open-plan home with scope for stylish, contemporary interiors.
