£575,000

A character smallholding extending to approximately 10 Acres in a secluded setting in the beautiful Lledr Valley within the Snowdonia National Park

INSPECTION HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Set within approximately 9.94 acres of its own grounds, this delightful smallholding occupies a wonderful secluded setting, lying between Dolwyddelan and Betws y Coed in a hamlet known as Pont y Pant, within easy reach of Pont y Pant railway station.

Surrounded by a mixture of grassland, woodland and mature trees, the property enjoys a truly private and tranquil setting, ideal for those seeking a rural lifestyle yet conveniently placed for local amenities, countryside walks and transport links.

The farmhouse has been sympathetically upgraded in recent years, carefully retaining a wealth of original character features, including exposed stonework, timber beams and a traditional inglenook fireplace. The layout offers flexibility, making the property equally suitable as a permanent residence or lifestyle smallholding.

A range of traditional stone outbuildings offer excellent potential for alternative uses, subject to the necessary planning consents. These buildings complement the character of the property and add further scope for storage, workshops or rural enterprise.

The land extends to approximately 9.94 acres, comprising grazing land, wooded areas and natural features, creating a varied and attractive landscape that enhances the sense of privacy and seclusion.

Location

The property is conveniently situated for access to local countryside walks, the surrounding Snowdonia landscape and nearby villages. Pont y Pant railway station is within close proximity, providing a valuable transport link, while the village of Dolwyddelan offers local amenities and community facilities.

The accommodation is arranged as follows:

Ground Floor

- Welcoming entrance and rear hall
- Living / dining room featuring a character inglenook fireplace, forming the heart of the home
- Kitchen positioned to the rear, enjoying views over the grounds
- Additional sitting room, which could alternatively serve as a third bedroom if required
- Utility area and shower room, providing practical facilities for country living
