The Courthouse is a renowned well established and firm favourite Guest House premises located within the inland tourist resort of Betws y Coed in The Snowdonia National Park. Occupying an enviable setting on the banks of the River Conwy, enjoying views over open farmland across the Valley. Well maintained gardens, large parking areas, conservatory and 5 en-suite guest bedrooms.

The Property

Originally constructed around 1890, the property was originally the village Courthouse and Police Station, converted to provide excellent Bed and Breakfast premises, but retains numerous character features of it's yesteryear's.

The property is of a stone and slate construction and it's design and former use adds to it's overall appeal. The grounds extend along the banks of the river and guests can enjoy sitting within the lawned gardens, overlooking the river. There is also a large gravelled parking area for guests and the owners. The property has successfully traded as a 4* Bed and Breakfast premises for many years and has an excellent reputation.

Location

Elevated setting on the banks of the River Conwy in an idyllic quiet location, but within a short walking distance of the village centre, golf club and village railway station. Betws y Coed is situated within The Snowdonia National Park in an area of outstanding natural beauty where the tributaries of the river Conwy, Llugwy and Lledr meet. The spectacular Swallow Falls and Conwy Falls are nearby. The busy village, whilst retaining its rural charm, offers excellent restaurants and shopping facilities ranging from souvenirs, arts and crafts, speciality walking and climbing equipment etc. The area is of particular appeal to walkers, climbers, naturalists, photographers, artists and anglers.

The traditional market town of Llanrwst with its range of shops lies approximately 4 miles North, whilst the larger shopping centre of Llandudno and Colwyn Bay are a further 12 miles towards the North Wales Coast.
