A beautifully presented, substantially extended semi-detached house, occupying an elevated position on the outskirts of the town and enjoying far-reaching views across the Conwy Valley

VIEWING HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

Tenure-Freehold EPC-C-Council Tax-D

The property has been sympathetically refurbished and renovated by the present owners, successfully blending traditional character and original features with stylish contemporary finishes. The spacious and versatile accommodation includes an impressive fitted kitchen, three bedrooms, two with en-suite facilities, a family bathroom and a converted attic room providing a potential fourth bedroom, study or hobby room.

Outside, there is an attractive, well-established front garden together with beautifully landscaped terraced gardens, thoughtfully designed to provide a variety of alfresco dining, seating and entertaining areas.

The detached garage has also been converted to create highly versatile ancillary accommodation, currently arranged as an occasional bedroom with an en-suite shower room and gym. This space would be equally suitable as a home office, studio or recreational room, while retaining the potential to be reinstated as a garage if required.
