Ivy House,

Betws Y Coed LL24 0SN

£495,000

A beautifully presented and sympathetically refurbished five-bedroom detached character home, set in generous gardens and enjoying a peaceful woodland backdrop within the Snowdonia National Park.

Tenure: Freehold. EPC - F. Council Tax Band - E

Occupying a delightful hamlet setting, Ivy House is a substantial double-fronted stone residence in a picturesque and accessible location. Surrounded by mature woodland and nestled within a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, the property enjoys a rural outlook whilst remaining conveniently located for access to Betws-y-Coed village.

Tastefully refurbished in recent years, retaining its period charm while introducing modern comforts including treble glazing and central heating throughout. The well-planned layout includes two attractive reception rooms, each featuring wood-burning stoves set within original fireplaces, creating cosy and welcoming spaces for family life and entertaining. A stylish dining room, also with feature fireplace, traditional fitted kitchen complete with exposed ceiling timbers. Five comfortable bedrooms arranged over the upper floor, each enjoying leafy outlooks and natural light. The accommodation is complemented by quality finishes and a warm, inviting feel throughout.

Location

This charming home is ideally positioned for those seeking a peaceful lifestyle close to nature, with footpaths, riverside walks, and mountain scenery all on the doorstep. The property is situated within ancient woods. The renowned village of Betws-y-Coed, with its range of shops, cafés, and transport links, lies within easy reach, as does the wider Snowdonia National Park and North Wales coast.
