£345,000

An immaculately presented, deceptively spacious 2 bedroom detached bungalow, occupying a peaceful cul-de-sac position on the outskirts of the town, with attractive hillside and woodland views to both the front and rear.

Tenure: Freehold. Council Tax - E. EPC Rating - TBC

This beautifully maintained home has been thoughtfully refurbished and upgraded by the present owner to provide bright, modern and highly comfortable accommodation, ideal for those seeking a property ready to move straight into. The bungalow benefits from gas central heating, double glazing, a contemporary fitted kitchen, a stylish shower room, and two well-proportioned double bedrooms.

A particular feature of the property is the substantial rear conservatory which extends across the full width of the bungalow, creating a superb additional living and dining space with lovely views over the garden. The main lounge is tastefully appointed and provides a warm and welcoming reception room, while the kitchen has been refitted in a modern style with a good range of units and integrated appliances.

In addition, there is an insulated garden office/studio, offering excellent flexibility for home working, hobbies or occasional leisure use.
