

5 John Street

Penmachno LL24 0UH

£184,500

A charming and deceptively spacious end terrace, traditional stone-built cottage offering beautifully presented three-bedroom accommodation with attractive garden, countryside views, and an abundance of character features throughout.

Noddfa enjoys a central position in a quiet village just a short stroll from the local inn and shop. The property is ideally located in the heart of Penmachno, a popular and scenic village surrounded by woodland and riverside walks, and a gateway to some of North Wales' best walking, biking and outdoor pursuits.

Internally, the cottage has been sympathetically updated to retain its period charm, with features including exposed ceiling beams, traditional latch doors, deep stone fireplace with slate lintel and multifuel stove, and natural floor coverings including slate and seagrass.

Outside, the cottage benefits from a lovely enclosed side garden offering a combination of patio seating area and raised lawn with well-stocked borders providing an ideal outdoor space for relaxing or entertaining.
